In the celebration of their 20th anniversary, Japanese music makers Mighty Crown partners up with Clae to produce the first ever collaborative project for the footwear brand. Founded in 1991 in Yokohama, Japan, Mighty Crown has influenced and led the dance hall scene for two decades. With this collaboration, only 300 pieces are available worldwide. The body is made up of both tweed and suede, and accented by the use of vivid green and red leather. Both the tongue and insole is embossed with the Mighty Crown logo to commemorate this anniversary edition. In addition, with each purchase, a Mighty Crown special DUB MIX CD is included. Retailing at ¥12,600 JPY (approximately $165 USD), they can now be pre-ordered via Mighty Crown.
