CLAE 2011 Fall/Winter Collection Lookbook

6 hours ago · Style · by Alex Maeland · 1652 views

Continuing to mature its style lineup for Fall/Winter 2011, CLAE offer a further glimpse into its latest styles and color installments. Having already introduced the Mobley and the Wilder for its Fall deliveries, the latest arrangement sees the return of staple styles such as the Khan, the Russell, the Strayhorn and the Ellington – effectively translating the signature shoes with updated colors and materials. A notable addition to the family is the Chambers sneaker, the brand's third new style for the season. The Chambers sneaker takes on a cap-toed tradition and administers a contemporary neoprene heel, tonal hardware and a chic, slimmed down build. Look for the entire collection including the Chambers to begin arriving at select retailers as well as the CLAE website.
