With cool weather, redder leaves and dressier attire, the post-summer seasons are ideal for dressier sneakers. Enter, the Clae Fall/Winter lineup. The fan-favorite Russell is back yet again; this time, wearing black nubuck. New to the collection are the Wilder, Mobley and Chambers, though all carry the crossover appeal we've come to expect out of this brand. The third drop of the season, this whole run is beginning to land in stores now.
